KENE D. COLEMAN,         )                           ORDER
                                )
Defendant.                 )

This matter is before the court on the defendant's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [27]. Counsel needs additional time to resolve this matter short of trial. The undersigned magistrate judge held a telephone conference with the parties. Based on what was stated during the telephone conference, and what was stated in defendant's motion, the undersigned magistrate judge finds good cause to grant the continuance. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [27] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, now set for April 16, 2024, is continued to June 25, 2024.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and June 25, 2024, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted.

DATED: April 8, 2024

United States Magistrate Judge
